

I live in wisconsin and am very appreciative of our current No Call List system. It has significantly reduced the number of unwanted calls we receive. I urge the Federal Communications Commission to not supercede any of the rules in the current wisconsin No Call List and weaken our protection from unwanted solicitation. Thank you.